

Love Horses?

We are looking for:

- Volunteers with an understanding and knowledge of horses
- Who would like to become RDA coaches
- Who can spare 2 hours per week during term time
- Experience of working with disabled people would be nice, but not essential

About us

We are Avon Riding Centre for Disabled and provide riding experiences to almost 200 disabled people each week on a 100 acre site on the outskirts of Bristol, close to Blaise Castle.

We are one of the largest Riding for the Disabled Association (RDA) Centres in the country and offer riding 6 days a week.

We will provide a tailored programme of training and assessment to help you achieve your coaching goals.

Don't want to be a coach? Whatever your skills, you will have something to offer Avon Riding Centre – there are plenty of other jobs that need to get done and you're bound to find a role that suits you.
